IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

JOSHUA BARNES, President.

$50 REWARD.

Stolen out of my Stables, at my residence in Northampton County, near Murfreesboro, N. C., on the night of the 31st. July last, a LIGHT BAY HORSE, rather raw boned, with both hind feet white and a knot or wen on the inside of the right hind leg, between the hock-joint and thigh.

Said Horse is supposed to have been stolen by a freedman, calling himself Albert Graham, and who said that he formerly belonged to Col. Graham, of Charlotte, N. C., and he may have taken the horse with him towards or to that place. He is a tall black negro, and wore, the day he left here, a long yellow linen duster.

I will pay the above reward of fifty dollars for the delivery of the horse to me, or information that will lead to his recovery.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

The public are hereby notified that in order to insure to them the Genuine Machines above mentioned, the Patentees and Manufacturers, (successors of Emery Brothers) have appointed Dunn, Plummer & Co., Petersburg, Va., as their Sole Agents, for this city and vicinity, for their sale at manufacturer's prices, with Transportation only added. As other parties are making Cotton Gins without the improvements which have given these Machines their superiority and unexampled success, and are offering them to the public with nearly the same representations, this notice is to prevent the imposition and disappointments of purchasers who desire the well established and approved Machines manufactured only by us.

THE UNIVERSAL COTTON GIN AND CONDENSER of Horace L. Emery's Patent, may be readily distinguished by their having the PICKER ROLL SUPPORTER suspended midway in the hopper over the saws, for supporting and moving the COTTON ROLL and preventing all possibility of choking or bridging of Cotton in the hopper from any cause. Also their air supply openings to an air chamber over the Brush Cylinder, and the words "HORACE L. TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

CONVENTION, 1866.

The State Convention of colored men, held in this city last September, as a medium through which the colored citizens could communicate their thoughts, purposes and desires, formed a State League, with its auxiliaries, to look after the interests of the Colored People of the State. The State Legislature has been memorialized in behalf of the colored people, and our petition was treated with respectful consideration. We have, as far as practicable, established auxiliary Leagues to promote the cause of Education, and to look after the suffering poor. While we feel a deep sense of gratitude to those Benevolent Societies which have done so much for the Freedman, still we are conscious of the fact that we must learn to rely upon ourselves, and the world is looking to us for a demonstration of our capacity to perform the part of useful, intelligent citizens.

The State League is the only recognized organization we, as a colored people, have; and it having performed its duties to the best of its ability, it was enjoined upon us to call another Convention, to be held in the City of Raleigh, on the first Tuesdays in October next, the 2nd. day of the month. Let each county be represented as the counties are represented in the State Legislature. In counties where there are Leagues the county to be represented by the Leagues.—Let each county send its best men as delegates.—This is no time to compliment friends at the expense of the public good. Let the people be influenced only by the consideration of qualification, and let the delegates be here promptly on the day appointed, that we may counsel together for the good of our people, and adopt such measures as will best promote our interests.

It is earnestly desired that every county be fully represented.

Delegates will come prepared to defray the expenses of the Convention.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Saturday Evening, Aug. 25, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Put True Union Men in Office.

Ordinarily, we are utterly opposed to proscription for opinion's sake. Political opinions, which do not vitally affect the fabric of the government, may be held, and should be held, by every man with impunity. It is a political right which all should exercise, freely and independently. But the endorsement of the Howard amendment, and the views of the Radicals generally, are so utterly at variance with the principles of the government, and so destructive to it, that we are forced to approve the position taken by the President in his late reply to the New Hampshire delegation:

"We have now a policy and principles recognized and laid down by the most intelligent, able and patriotic body of men convened since the days of the Declaration of Independence. A recognition of this policy and principles WOULD BE REQUIRED OF THOSE WHO RECEIVE OFFICE AND PATRONAGE FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

It was a duty the administration owed to itself, that strength and power should be given to those who maintain the principles declared by that great body of national men who met at Philadelphia!"

The principles endorsed by the Philadelphia Convention are essential to the life and unity of the Republic. At this crisis the foundations of the government cannot bear the shock of material changes, much less such radical changes as the Congress proposes. The executive officers of the nation, both civil and military, should be known to be sound and ardent friends of the Constitution, as it is, and not the advocates of change. Men of doubtful loyalty to the government, whether they advocate the right of secession, as a practical question, on the one hand, or the Howard amendment, on the other, should not be tolerated in office. Law makers and the executors of law should be pledged to support President Johnson's policy, and the Constitution at it is.

Having begun the work of removal, we hope the President will go forward with a steady hand. His Cabinet must be purified of Radicalism. Especially should the principal and the main attaches of the office of the Secretary of War be ejected. His appointments in the South, and his acts, exhibit so hostile a spirit to the South, as seriously to jeopard the peace and quiet of our people, and we are glad that the friends of the President at the North demand the purification of his office.

In North Carolina the President has work to do. Every man in office in the State, civil or military, who is in favor of Radical measures and opposed to the President, should be removed at once. Many of them, if not most of them, are exceedingly hostile to the President and to the patriotic principles and purposes of the Philadelphia Convention. Some of the delegates appointed by the Washington County meeting to the 'Traitors' Convention to be held in Philadelphia, in September, are office-holders under the President in this State. Many of the collectors and assessors, collectors of the customs, postmasters, and the District Marshal, are hostile to the President and to the Constitution as it is. So are, also, officers of the Freedmen's Bureau. They should be removed, at once, and their places supplied with true men to the government.

We observe that some of our cotemporaries are considerably exercised about that clause of the Declaration of Principles, adopted by the National Union Convention, concerning the payment of bounties and pensions to the Federal soldiers, &c. We really see no occasion for this display of sensibility. It is not to be expected that we of the South should entertain sentiments of gratitude towards those who were the instruments of our defeat, nor does the resolution commit us to any such hypocritical profession. It simply declares it "to be the duty of the National government" thus to provide for these soldiers, and to take the customary care of the orphans and widows of those who have fallen in its armies. The "National government" has been maintained by them, and it would be an unworthy and ungrateful government, as such, that did not recognize their services in every suitable way.

The State of North Carolina has done all for its gallant soldiers that it can do in its present impoverished condition, in providing those who were mutilated in its service with artificial limbs. There is nothing that it would not do for them, we are sure, were its pecuniary ability at all commensurate with its inclination. We hope that every Southern State will follow the noble example thus set by North Carolina, and that in every community associations may be organized for the purpose of extending such relief, as lies in our contracted power, to the families of the heroic men who fell or were disabled in the cause. We will cherish the memories of the dead, and guard their last resting-places with a pious care. We will honor and esteem the living, as they so richly deserve.—But while we do this, it is mawkish to object that a National Convention should have declared it the binding duty of the National government to pursue a similar course towards its own defenders.

Trial of Bureau Officers.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says that it is understood, although not yet officially promulgated, that the findings of the Military Commission ordered for the trial of certain agents of the Freedman's Bureau in North Carolina, on charges originating in the investigations of Generals Steedman and Fullerton, acquit all the officers except Captain Glaris.

Our Western Counties.

No portion of the State furnished, or lost, more men in the late struggle, than our mountain and trans-montane Counties. They are filled with a hardy, enterprising and noble population. In no section of the State do we discover more hopeful signs of enterprise and recuperation, and a more determined spirit to overcome the losses and the injuries of the war. We are heartily glad to see this.

Our Western counties possess all the elements of prosperity, and furnish the most desirable residences for an intelligent, enterprising and happy people. Their resources, which are immense and afford the means of great wealth, need development. The only possible avenues or outlets for these resources are well directed and well managed railroads. Much of the country is locked in from the outer world by mountain ranges, which defy any other mediums of egress and ingress, except roads; and railroads alone can aid them efficiently in the great work of improvement.

The Western Extension Railroad, if carried out as originally contemplated, will pass through the heart of this region. This, intersected by proper feeders, would in a few years change the entire face of the country, and largely contribute to the material wealth of the State. We discover an unusual anxiety springing up in the West for the continuance of this road, and we assure our Western friends that the same anxiety exists among the people of the Middle and Eastern sections of the State. We cannot, for a moment, believe that an intelligent Eastern man can be found, who does not most heartily sympathize with them in their desire to develop the resources of that great country. No merely sectional feeling is harbored by their brethren of the Middle and Eastern portions of the State—no purpose or desire to take care of themselves, at the expense of the West, dwells in their bosoms. So far from it, many of the warmest friends of Western improvement are found in Middle and Eastern Carolina. They feel that the interests of our whole people are identical,—that whatever tends to benefit the West, must benefit the whole State. There is neither sense or sound policy in reflections from any quarter that would excite sectional jealousy, and it is positively suicidal and wicked to foster a political agitation growing out of sectional issues. He is but a demagogue or a stark-mad tyro in statesmanship, who would attempt this. Such a course would deserve the severest rebuke.

We affirm that whatever reasonable or feasible plan for the improvement of the West may be presented, will meet a warm response by all portions of the State. We know that Gov. Worth, and all the leading men of Middle and Eastern Carolina, will heartily respond to, and will do their utmost to promote, any and all plans, within the compass of our means, to push forward the work of improvement in the West. But nothing could so dampen the ardor and the interest of the people of the State, as the utterance of unfounded suspicions of sectionalism among the people and the demagogical presentation of questions of a merely sectional-political character. Let the true friends of progress eschew, altogether, questions of this nature, and let us move on harmoniously, each doing what he can to promote the prosperity and material interests of the whole State.

ABSOLUTE DECREES OF DIVORCE speedily obtained, without publicity. Success guaranteed. F. I. KING, Counsellor at Law, 212 Broadway.

AN ABSOLUTE DIVORCE LEGALLY OBtained without publicity or exposure. No fees charged until divorce is granted. GEORGE LINCOLN, lawyer, 80 Nassau street, N. Y.

We clip the foregoing from the advertising columns of a late number of the New York Herald. They argue a most depraved condition of moral sentiment. Such professional announcements would hardly be made, unless there was an amount of business "in that line" that paid. Society must be radically corrupt, where the marital relations,—the most sacred in life,—are held so lightly, that a breath of suspicion, a mere caprice, is sufficient to dissolve them. In the benighted South, which Radical philanthropists are so eager to evangelize, the laws upon the subject of divorce are so stringent that one is rarely obtained. We do not think that we err in stating that not twenty have been procured in North Carolina in twice as many years.

The Ex-Provisional Governor is much to be commiserated. It appears that all his "strait-sect" friends, even, are unprepared to endorse him. The Rev. Hope Bain will not vouch for him before the Reconstruction Committee. And we learn, from the Greensboro' Patriot, that, at a late meeting of Rads., away down in the South-east corner of Guilford, one of the most prominent speakers gave the Standard a severe rasping—charging that paper with not being true to the interests of the particular party whose good graces it was courting. Such are the melancholy fruits of political tergiversation!—But we think that these Guilford Radicals are unnecessarily skeptical.

Well Said.

The Fredericksburg Herald says well: "It is neither necessary nor incumbent to point out where we agree or where we disagree with the Philadelphia Convention. We are on the boisterous deep, and we mean to get into harbor before we have words with the crew. It will require the energy and good will of one and all to accomplish that mighty work. Criticism can only distract the patriotic men at the head of the movement. It weakens the situation.—It gives joy to the Radical camp. They shall get none from this quarter."

The Washington Chronicle says that the Proclamation of the President "restores the civil authority, and abolishes martial law in every part of the United States."

The long ribbons which the girls now wear round their necks and trailing so far down the back, or flying to leeward, are called "follow me, my lads." We have seen the lads following them (with their eyes) a block or two.

The Southern Delegates in Philadelphia.

As special pains are taken to create the impression that the assent of the Southern delegates to those parts of the declaration of principles touching slavery, the national debt, and the Federal soldiers, was forced and insincere, it may be well enough to state one or two facts concerning their action, which will show how untrue and unjust such an impression would be.

The Committee on Address and Resolutions was very large—consisting of two from each State and Territory. On organizing, a sub-committee of thirteen was appointed, to which the subject of resolutions was referred; and upon this committee were placed some of the strongest men of the South—Hon. W. A. Graham, of North Carolina; Governor Perry, of South Carolina; Judge Yerger, of Mississippi; Governor Parsons, of Alabama; and others.—The declaration of slavery, as first drawn, simply stated that "slavery is abolished and forever prohibited upon the soil and within the jurisdiction of the United States." The clause "and there is neither purpose nor desire on the part of the Southern States that it should ever be re-established" was inserted at the instance of Judge Yerger, and with the prompt and unanimous assent of the Southern delegates. This most important declaration, therefore, was wholly voluntary on the part of the South, and indicates beyond all doubt their settled and sincere purpose.

On the subject of the national debt the assent of the southern delegates was equally prompt and cordial. They repelled in the strongest terms all thought, purpose, or wish, of repudiating the debt or avoiding their full share of whatever burdens it may involve. They unanimously insisted that any insinuation of an unwillingness on the part of the South to meet this responsibility was an imputation upon their honor, and would be so regarded, and they were perfectly willing that a declaration to this effect should be inserted in the resolution, if it would prove of the slightest service. They repudiated with equal emphasis all idea of the assumption of their own debt, saying no man at the South, except some holder of Confederate bonds, ever dreamed of such a thing or desired it. Their declarations on this subject were explicit, emphatic, and unanimous.

In regard to recognizing the services of the Federal soldiers, they said they expected the Government which had been maintained by them would do them justice. They believed this to be simply its duty, and they should co-operate and assist in performing it. They expressed the hope that it would not be deemed necessary to compliment the courage, devotion, or other soldierly qualities of Northern men at the expense of the Southern, because on this point they felt bound to insist upon the merits of their own troops. But this was a matter of feeling merely, and would not interfere with their voting to render full justice to the United States troops by paying their dues and pensioning their widows and orphans. They paid the highest compliments to them, and said they deserved the most generous treatment from the government they had served. And the resolution on this subject was adopted in committee just as unanimously as the others.

The action of the southern delegates in the Committee as well as in the Convention was thoroughly patriotic and public spirited. They evinced the most perfect devotion to the Union; declaring that it was now their government as much as ours, and the only national government they knew, and that the only rivalry between the North and South hereafter should be as to which should do most for its honor, its weltare, and its perpetuity.—New York Times.

Hear R. E. Withers, the gallant Colonel of the Eighteenth Virginia regiment, who in one of the Richmond battles was so dreadfully wounded that his life was despaired of:

"As far as we are concerned, we yield to no man in upholding the honor of the South, or of its dead and living heroes. But may our right hand forget its cunning ere we, by word or deed, have upon our skirts the guilt of obstructing the onward march of that great conservative movement which, inaugurated at Philadelphia, is destined, we trust and believe, to culminate ere long in the complete defeat of the Radicals and in the restoration of the southern people to all their rights as citizens of the United States. There are sentiments in that platform which we, as a southern man, object to; but when we know that every line penned in condemnation of it is eagerly caught up by the Radical press of the North and trumpeted forth as evidence of continued disloyalty on our part, we submit that a prudent silence far better becomes us now than a wordy and unavailing condemnation."

Gen. Beauregard a Prince.—The Paris correspondent of the New Orleans Times says, in his last letter: "He is still with us, or rather he is in Paris, having been called thither again, as I understand it, to consider his refusal of the supreme military command from the Moldo-Wallachia Government. It is given out that the French Emperor, who is all powerful with the Romans, is no longer adverse to the General's acceptance to the position. As to the General's own way of thinking, or intentions concerning the matter—wait and see. Certain it is, the Romans are most anxious to have him, and in their eagerness have made him very tempting offers—the title of prince, to rank next to the Hospodar, the sum of $200,000 down in hard cash, a princely salary, and the supreme, absolute command of all the military forces and retinue of the ten principalities. If the General should accept, his late companions in arms could, and doubtless will, furnish a body of officers that would prove invaluable to the Romans in the event of war. Mighty events are impending all along the Danube."

A correspondent of the New York Record says that a brother of Governor Andrew, of Massachusetts, who is running a cotton plantation in Louisiana, was very severely beaten by "a man and a brother" in the shape of a freedman, for interfering with the amusement of the latter in whipping his wife. Andrew retreated, terribly demoralized about the face and eyes, and disgusted with Southern plantations and all. He told some of the members that he had expended thirty thousand dollars in starting the cotton planting adventure, but would give it up. He said that he had "fought four years to make the nigger free, and now was willing to fight the remainder of his lifetime to put him back into slavery again." Sic transit gloria mundi!

The Late Riot---Radical Report.

New Orleans, August 21.—The labors of the Military Commission appointed to investigate the origin and causes of the late riot in this city are drawing to a close. The report, consisting of deductions from the two thousand pages of evidence, will be submitted to General Sheridan about the close of the month. After endorsing the report, General Sheridan will transmit it to the War Department. It is believed that the report will be of a Radical political character.

Unhealthy Peace.

La Liberte, the new organ of M. De Girarden, in an article entitled "Unhealthy Peace"—Fauler Friede—attempts to show that the United States have succeeded in solving, by war, grave political questions, so completely as to insure a durable peace.

As regards the proof, here is the one given in the article:

"Right or wrong, they (the United States) determined to settle by war the question of Slavery and the question of the perpetuity of the Union.

Have they settled those questions?

Yes.

Where is the proof?

The proof is, that immediately after the capture of Richmond, they commenced to disband the army, without even waiting for the conclusion of peace. The proof is that, peace concluded, they sold at auction all the paraphernalia of war—cannons, muskets, sabres and uniforms. The proof is, that the mass of Generals have returned to pacific occupations.

This is peace, real peace, durable peace, rational peace, the peace we yearn for in Europe.

If, consequently, peace is a compromise loyally accepted by all; if it means disarming, then we say with joy—give us peace!"

Prince de Polignac reviews this statement in the following caustic sentences which have a very wonderful resemblance to "the whole truth:"

May it please the Liberte, the imagination of the writer outstrips the truth.

The disbandment of the army was commenced upon the fall of Richmond, I admit; but the United States simply rid themselves of that which was useless after the conquest. This cannot be called disarming.

I admit that a few old army caps were sold but do we not frequently sell condemned horses?—a measure which Mr. Clement Duvernois would scarcely call disarming?

If to triumph is the synonym of making peace, I admit that the Liberte is right.

The States of Europe maintain armies to protect themselves against their neighbors. This plan may be good or bad, I do not propose to discuss it. The United States, previously to the war, also kept a small permanent army, to guard their frontiers from the incursions of the Indians, their only neighbors. This was the application of the same principle.

But have they now abandoned the frontier army? Have they offered to Europe, as M. Clemont Duvernois asserts they have, the example of a genuine disarming? Alas, no!

The truth is, they have exceeded the custom of European States, by maintaining an army, not to protect, but to govern the country.

The truth is, they have stationed their Northern troops in the States of the South, just as Prussia stations her forces at Frankfort, or in Bohemia.

The truth is, they have continued thus to maintain their troops in the South for more than a year since the war came to a close, and there is no appearance of their being withdrawn.

The truth is, they have placed all their liberties beneath the point of the sabre, beginning with the liberty of the Press, even in the States of the North, where, from 1861 to 1865, upward of twenty journals were suppressed by the Secretary of War, and finishing with liberty of person, which is daily violated, and municipal liberty, which in the South no longer exists, except in name.

The truth is, that instead of making an honest peace, they have excluded the States of the South from the Union, after waging war upon them four years to force them to return to it.

The truth is, they have refused to admit to Congress Representatives from the States of the South, and have taxed these States though deprived of representation, forgetting the precepts of their ancestors and the principle of their Revolution against the Mother Country.

The truth is, far from giving Europe a lesson, they have imitated the old world by centralizing their Government, thus making a revolution backward.

The truth is, finally, that they have done all these things, and are able to persist in them by means of the sabre, and nothing but the sabre.

And this is the example which M. Clement Duvernois holds up as a model to Europe! It may perhaps be to the liking of Prussia. After conquering all she wants in Germany, after cantoning her troops all over that country, she may send home her superfluous soldiers, and, crowning themselves with wreaths of oak leaves, her statesmen may then say, "We have made peace."

Such is an American peace—by no means 'unhealthy' for those who impose it, but exceedingly so to those upon whom it is imposed. It has a secret analogy with the process by which teeth are pulled without pain—to the extractor.

Peace, like liberty, has two kinds of admirers—those who admire it for itself and those who admire it for themselves.

I do not doubt that M. Clemont Duvernois may be reckoned among the first of these categories. I hope the same may be said of Prussia, but, as regards the party which now rules in the United States, I have ceased to hope.

(Signed,) Carmille de Polignac.

Legal Effect of the Proclamation.

The proclamation of President Johnson, declaring the insurrection at an end in all the States, is a complete abdication of all the extraordinary powers with which the President was clothed by Congress, during the war. This consequence would have attended the previous proclamation, only that did not include Texas; and the insurrection having been regarded by Congress as one whole, and not as a series of separate insurrections in several States, the extraordinary powers did not expire so long as there was any place where the insurrection had not been declared extinct. There were only eleven States that seceded; but in consequence of this local insurrection, confined to one section of the country, the President was empowered by Congress to suspend the habeas corpus throughout the United States, or any part of them, and this power was vested in him till the end of the rebellion. But Texas having completed the construction of a loyal State government, and the President having declared the insurrection at an end in that State, as well as in all the others, the whole system of military interference with the regular course of law falls to the ground, and things revert to the condition in which they were before the war.

And now that the hideous system has ended, we defy any man to look back upon its history, and point out an instance in which arbitrary arrests, overriding courts by martial law, and shutting up newspaper offices by files of soldiers, accomplished the slightest good, or hastened, by a single day, the successful termination of the war.—N. Y. World.

All proceedings for the confiscation of General Beauregard's property have been stopped by the Government.

General News.

The Army Worm.—We regret, says the Montgomery Mail, to learn that the army worm is creating great destruction among the cotton fields of this country. Planters inform us that the crop will be materially shortened by the worms. A gentleman from the country stated to us yesterday, that he fully expected to make three hundred bales, but, since the appearance of the army worm on his plantation, he would be satisfied with one hundred. This is sad news, not only to the planter, but to the entire country.

Greeley is very rough on Stanton in his present troubles. He says:

"There was a time when Mr. Stanton could have retired without descending from his proud position. We regret the fact; but that time has passed. The Secretary has stooped, and cringed, and paltered, and truckled, till he may now be contemptuously kicked out, with perfect safety to the kicker. And yet there is a lower depth of debasement, which even he may wisely avoid; and that will be sounded if he now accepts a second-class mission bestowed on him in scornful pity for his downfall."

The piano-violin which is to be exhibited next year at Paris, is in shape like an ordinary piano forte, with an extra box. The player performs as usual, and no sooner does his finger touch the keys than the violin is heard in unison with the piano-forte. Inside the box is a violin, and four large bows run across the strings and compel them to sound the notes. The bows move up and down perpendicularly, each in its turn, and sound each note, which is made by the touches of the piano-forte. It is said to be an American invention.

An Ill-Omened Peace.

Under the title of "The Conditions of a Durable Peace," the Opinion Nationale of Paris, of August 7, commences a long editorial thus:

"The belligerent Powers have signed the preliminaries of peace. In a few weeks, probably, peace itself will be signed. Mankind and those interested will rejoice; on this point all the world agrees."

Yet there are those who do not believe that this peace will endure, and here are their reasons:

Austria is very much humiliated, and will take her revenge.

Italy has not satisfied her military honor, and will seek an occasion signally to assert it.

Prussia has been very successful, and will desire to absorb the rest of Germany.

France is dissatisfied. The treaties of 1815 are destroyed, but not by her and not to her benefit; she receives no compensation for the aggrandizement of Prussia. The map of Europe is changing, but there is no change for her.

There is truth in all these considerations, and it is apparent that if the belligerent powers and the mediating power would make their work durable they must to a certain extent take them into account. * * * France must be satisfied. That is the surest guarantee of European peace.

THOMAS SMITH,

WHOLESALE

AND RETAIL DRY GOODS

25 SYCAMORE STREET.

"The First of the Season."

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanella, richly embroidered—an entirely new thing, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transconia A'Soie, effective Careaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreatux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 50c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

GIVE US A CALL BEFORE PURCHASING

ELSEWHERE.

I would also call the attention of the public to the celebrated Florence Lock Stitch Sewing Machine.

This Machine, being but recently introduced, is already gaining for itself a host of friends, as our daily sales testify. Its simplicity and recommend it to all. It possesses all the best qualities of the good standard Machines, with several important improvements, more fully explained in the "Circulars," which I send free by mail to any address on application.

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Aug. 25, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Thomas Smith, No. 25 Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., the liberal advertiser and enterprising Merchant, announces his attractive Fall openings. We commend him to the patronage of our North Carolina dealers. They may go further and fare much worse.

Jno. B. Cary, General Agent of the Virginia Penitentiary, Richmond, offers for sale a large quantity of Penitentiary goods, manufactured of the best material.

Pulliam, Jones & Co. have sweet white meal on hand.

GAS IN THE CAPITOL.—Our splendid Capitol was lighted up with gas for the first time last evening, and the brilliant spectacle attracted a large crowd of our citizens to the building.—Elegant and substantial fixtures have been put up in the various offices and passages and in the rotunda, while magnificent chandeliers, with from thirty to forty burners, are hung in each of the legislative halls,—giving, when lit, the brightness of day to the spacious rooms.—We have good reason to feel great pride in our State Capitol, and the improvements recently made in it, in many particulars besides that of lighting with gas, have added much to its handsome and imposing appearance.

The addition of gas has been made under an ordinance of the late Convention. The work of drilling through the solid masonry for the insertion of pipes has been one of great difficulty, but it has been skillfully accomplished. The reign of candles in the Capitol is over. Let us hope that there may be, hereafter, some improvement in its intellectual lights.

WE ARE REQUESTED to announce that Col. W. H. Thomas, of Jackson County, will address the people of Raleigh and vicinity, in the Commons Hall, at 8 P. M., on Monday, the 27th inst., "in favor of most of the measures adopted by the Philadelphia Convention, and also upon the consolidation and completion of our Railroads,—the measures deemed necessary to effect these objects, and the rise and progress of civilization and christianity among the Cherokee Indians in the Western part of our State," &c.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, August 24th and 25th.—Jno. Jos. Long, Weldon; Wm. T. Alston, Warrenton; Jas. J. Boykin, Tarboro'; P. H. Winston, Bertie; A. B. Jones, Clarksville, S. C.; W. B. Mitchell, Kentucky; H. Burnett, Kentucky; Geo. Douglass, Nashville, Tenn.; W. Merwick, Texas; Paul H. Julian, Jackson, Miss.; P. M. Amos, Madison, N. C.

THE NEW STORE AND HALL.—The Messrs. Tucker are progressing finely with their new Store and Hall on Fayetteville Street. The Store will occupy the first story, and will be adapted, in all respects, to their large business. Above the Store, a large Hall will be handsomely fitted up, to be let for the use of the public for Lectures, Concerts, &c., &c. This will be a valuable acquisition to the City,—an institution which has been greatly needed. The Messrs. Tucker will merit, as they will no doubt receive, the thanks of the community for their public spirit.

OUR THANKS are due to Messrs. Conant & Hunter, Merchants of Portsmouth, Va., for their timely consideration of the wants of the printer, in the shape of a kit of No. 1 Mackerel. They are good at guessing. It was what we wanted.

By the way, Messrs. Conant & Hunter are creating a market for naval stores and spirits of turpentine, by their recent sales of those articles at good prices.

WE ARE indebted to the polite Agents of both the Southern and National Express Companies for favors the past week. We are glad to know that they are both doing a good business, and they deserve it. Our friends can make remittances for the Sentinel, free of cost, through either of these Companies.

COUNTY COURT.—The Court House has been thronged, this week, by a general turn out of Africa, or the freedmen. They seemed to have twice as much business in the Court as the whites. Several persons, both white and black, have paid the penalty of the law, by receiving punishment at the public whipping post. By the way, we have heard much complaint as to the too public position of the whipping post, and we understand the Sheriff lays it on hard. If our prompt County Solicitor and Sheriff shall deter evil doers, by becoming a terror to them, good may be effected. But let justice be mingled with mercy.

MESSRS. ANDREWS & BARDIN, of Wilmington, have ordered a solid silver cup, which they offer as a premium to that farmer in either of the Counties of Wayne, Johnston, or Wilson, who shall send them the first bale of new cotton of his own production, weighing not less than 400 pounds.

PROF. KIMBERLY, late Professor of Agricultural Chemistry at the University, has resigned. He designs devoting himself to farming,—having purchased a farm in Buncombe county.

An English judge (Mellor) stated lately, during the hearing of a cause, that it had always been his opinion that calling many witnesses to prove one fact was like adding a large quantity of water to a small quantity of brandy—it made it weak.

Governor Orr will convene the South Carolina Legislature in special session on Tuesday, 28th inst. A modification of the negro code, the relief of debtors and a provision for the suffering poor, will constitute the important subjects of legislation.

There is to be a grand mass meeting of those in favor of sustaining the President's policy, at Bangor, Maine, to-day, at which it is expected Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, Gov. Parsons, of Alabama, Hon. E. F. Pillsbury, of Maine, and other distinguished orators, will be present.

Vote on the Constitution.

Haywood, Henderson and Warren are still to be heard from officially. The vote in these counties will probably reduce the majority for rejection two or three hundred votes.

The Last of the Provisionals.

The Houston (Texas) Telegraph gives the private and political pedigree of Hamilton, the late unworthy Provisional Governor of that State. With his private history we have nothing to do,—but the following extracts will show that, politically, he is made out of the same base material with most of the other Southern Radicals:

"So much for his private character, for the present. As to his political course, from 1853 to 1858, he was a most violent Secessionist, insistingon the recision of the articles of annexation of Texas to the Union, and seeking support for public office on that platform. Of this there is abundant proof at hand. He was thus in favor of secession, by 'separate State' action, before anybody else in the South was, in consequence of Northern aggressions upon the institution of slavery."

"About the same time he was openly and earnestly an advocate of the re-opening of the African slave trade.

"And last of all, after the war commenced, he applied to a leading merchant in Galveston for money to raise a company for Confederate service!

"This is the man whom the Northern radicals are taking to their bosoms, and whose vote for the Vice Presidency at the next election he is seeking to obtain by denouncing and slandering and cursing the people of his own State."

THE FALL ELECTIONS—IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

I presume I violate no confidence when I inform you that the ensuing fall elections are to be carried at all hazards for the Administration party. There will be no Connecticut slip-ups, I am assured. The Executive has been informed by those in frequent converse with him, that such fatal errors must not be allowed to occur in any State where they can be prevented; and there is the best possible authority for asserting that he holds the same view. His new position in cutting loose from those whose "acts tended to perpetuate disunion and make a disruption of the States inevitable," is said to be fully realized by him, and he feels that he can now move forward in the work of restoration unfettered by any fear of displeasing the people at large, or any supposed abandonment of "the party that elected him." His declaration, as expressed at the threshold of the fall campaign, is, "Those who oppose me, I will oppose."—Correspondence Ledger.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse., makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address,
